MORE ABOUT THE ARTISTS

BOOTH ARTISTS

Jose Reyes enjoys finding unique antiques and transforming them into eclectic pieces.

Kat Cook uses math equations and geometry in her paintings to ensure her lines & angles are precise. What began as a hobby has now turned into a way for her to connect with others.

Cody Steele will be tattooing LIVE at his booth!

Renee Bebeau is bringing her henna mandalas to Beloit where she hopes guests will find their own spiritual connection with her work.

Scott Payne collects human skulls and bones. While it may seem odd, Scott has always had an eye for recycling items that he finds and turning them into art.

Dylan Haller creates incredible handmade wire wrap pieces that are one-of-a-kind.

Ryan Salamone is a Midwest-based photographer who uses his lens to tell stories through his unique portraits.

Collin Harrison takes his 2D paintings and translates them to unusual canvases like skateboards, guitars and boxes.

Sergio Ariel Blanco-Manresa (Surge) is a high school counselor by day and a digital artist, musician and writer by night.

John Prusak is a photographer that specializes in fashion, editorial & catalogue. He'll be photographing the fashion show designed by Christine Adar and displaying his current work.

Mario Duarte is a welder by day and a creative custom metal sculptor by night.

Quincy Owens' booth features an interactive event of "Coaster Pong." Think beer pong meets county fair games. Intrigued?

Derek Hambly is an Australia native who began dipping brushes into paint at an early age in Melbourne. After moving to the U.S. he honed in on his craft of creating bold landscapes using thick oil paints and applying it to the canvas with a knife.

Dustin Eckhardt is bringing his bright, colorful and vibrant style to DEVIATE where you can check out his most recent work and even watch him live paint a special piece.

Timm Gerdman wants his work to resonate with everyone. And with his repaired heart collection, he's doing just that through his painted wood pieces as almost everyone can relate to having their heart broken one way or another.

MUSIC AND OTHER ARTISTS

Tynacity wants his music to be for everyone. He says he understands the hardships many people go through, dealing with loss, hopelessness and loneliness, but through music he found hope.

Children of the Rat Temple is bringing their unique experiential, electronic and psychedelic sound to Beloit for a live performance that will truly indulge the senses.

Nick Sky has taught himself how to play several instruments including the guitar, drums and ukulele. His sound has evolved over time, and he now focuses on creating melodic hard rock.

Adem Dalipi is bringing his blues-influenced style and original music to the stage.

V i z i o n James Bockover-McCormick goes by the performer name, Vizion, but he's actually legally blind. What he lacks in sight, he makes up for through his sense of hearing which he uses to come up with his very own unique beats.

loki is bringing his house music-inspired sets to the stage where you will feel the vibes evolve with each track he plays.

Mahogany has been DJing for over two decades. His set is going to be a spiritual experience where he'll match his beats to the vibe of the event for a truly one-of-a-kind sound.

Velvet 100 is bringing original music that combines funk, dance, groove and smooth beats.

Beloit International Film Festival is best known for its iconic 10-day festival that takes place each February, it's a community that shares the art of film to the surrounding area through showings & other events all year long.

Rod Johnsen is spinning fire! Experience this multisensory performance first hand and be mesmerized by the patterns of the fire and even feel the warmth of the flames as he spins them around to the music.
